Board of Directors of meVC Draper Fisher Jurvetson Fund I, Inc. Accepts
Resignations of Peter S. Freudenthal and Paul D. Wozniak

REDWOOD CITY, CA, June 17, 2002--The Board of Directors of meVC Draper Fisher Jurvetson Fund I, Inc. (NYSE: MVC) today accepted the resignations of Peter S. Freudenthal and Paul D. Wozniak from the Fund. Freudenthal and Wozniak also resigned from meVC Advisers, Inc.

meVC Draper Fisher Jurvetson Fund I is in the process of reorganizing how the Fund is administered and these resignations were expected as part of the reorganization.

John Grillos, Chairman and CEO of the meVC Draper Fisher Jurvetson Fund I, said, "I wish Peter and Paul well in whatever they do. The Fund is going through a reorganization plan as a result of listening to our investors' concerns, and none of the options under consideration contemplated an ongoing role for meVC Advisers."

meVC Draper Fisher Jurvetson Fund I, Inc., an information technology venture capital fund, was formed through a collaborative effort between meVC, a Delaware corporation, and Draper Fisher Jurvetson, a leading venture capital investment firm.

Statements in this announcement other than historical data and information constitute forward looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those stated or implied by such forward-looking statements. Potential risks and uncertainties may include, but are not limited to, recent changes in senior management, fluctuations in operating results, market conditions and changes in technology and increased competition.
